We accept all skill levels of photographers, from those who have a "point-and-shoot" to those who are advanced pro/amateurs with all the latest digital SLR gear. Our goal is to put you in front of remarkable scenes and cultural experiences--this is not a workshop with evening photography meetings or critiques. Travelers who are not keenly interested in photography will have plenty to do, always with guides and drivers at your disposal, but we would, however, like to know a little about your photo skills so please describe your interest in photography and the camera you use.

Terms and Conditions

Tour cost is $6,995.USD per person, double occupancy. After your $1,000.USD per person deposit arrives, in your behalf and according to Bhutan's national tourism policy, Rainbow Photo Tours will secure all in-country services including your lodging, transportation, meals, and your Bhutanese visa. Since you are required by Bhutanese national tourism regulations to obtain your visa through a Bhutanese tour operator—we use Rainbow Tours and Treks—this payment includes your Bhutanese tourism fee and your Bhutanese visa fee. International airfare is not included but we prefer to obtain that for you and will include the cost on your final invoice. Flights can be arranged from Bangkok, Delhi, Dacca, Katmandu or Singapore. We suggest Bangkok because there are two flights daily whereas other cities are more limited as to departure days.

Single supplement is $70.USD per day X 15 days. If you wish to share accommodations, we will attempt to match you with a roommate on a first-come basis --if none is found, we will bill you the forced single supplement with your final invoice. Because accommodations can sometimes be Spartan, we encourage you to consider the single supplement if not traveling with a companion.

Inclusions

- $65.USD per day "Royalty Fee" charged by the Bhutanese government and mandated by the fourth King of Bhutan, AKA K4. (As per government policy, $975.USD per person for this tour of 15 days in country goes directly to their government for schools, hospitals, roads, etc.)
- accommodations
- Bhutan visa fee and tourism tax
- all meals and ample bottled water (excluding bar bill and soft drinks)
- all transportation by car
- all fees associated with special events listed on the itinerary
- expert leadership by Rainbow Photo Tours and Rainbow Tours and Treks of Bhutan
- A Bhutanese guide or driver to assist you and carry gear

Exclusions

- International airfare to and from Bhutan (BKK - Paro - Guwhati - BKK averages $650.USD)
- Tips to Bhutanese guides and drivers and religious site offering
- Indian visa fee. (Needed for land travel from Bhutan border to Guwhati airport.)
- Excess baggage fees

Limits of liability—the small print

Most of the suppliers of tour services listed in this itinerary are independent contractors and not employees of Rainbow Photo Tours. Rainbow Tours and Treks of Bhutan hires and contracts with its own guides and drivers and books all participants into independent lodgings. Because Rainbow Photo Tours does not own, operate, manage, or control these businesses, we cannot be held liable for any acts on their part. Rainbow Photo Tours assumes no responsibility for any injury, loss, damage, sickness or death to person or property arising from the negligent or willful act or failure to act of any person who provides goods or services for this tour or for the action or inaction of any third party or for the failure of any equipment or vehicle used during the tour. We are not responsible for any delays brought about by circumstances beyond our control or health conditions that may afflict or injuries that may occur to tour participants. We urge you to purchase adequate travel insurance to cover illness, accidents and trip cancellation. We reserve the right to alter the itinerary for any reason that may arise.

Cancellation policy: Must be received in writing. At time of receipt of refund request: More than 120 days prior to departure Bangkok, 10% penalty; 30 through 119 days prior to departure Bangkok, 50% penalty; departure day through 29 days prior to departure Bangkok, 100% penalty. All penalties in this cancellation policy refer to a percentage of total tour cost.
